Storage Mobility Announces Opening of Four New Facilities

September 2005

TAMPA, Florida – Storage Mobility, LLC (“Storage Mobility” or the “Company”), the largest franchisee of Portable on Demand Storage, or PODS, reported that the Company opened three new facilities in August and one new facility in September.

David Schmeltz, CEO and President of Storage Mobility, said, “We are pleased to announce that in August, we opened facilities in Contra Costa, Sacramento and Stockton, California, and that in September, we opened a facility in Reno, Nevada. With the opening of these facilities, we have now met our goal of having an operation in each of our markets by the end of 2005. Going forward, our focus will be on growing our markets and increasing our market share.”

About Storage Mobility

Storage Mobility is the largest franchisee of Portable on Demand Storage, or PODS. Founded in 1998, PODS is rapidly becoming a leading provider of mobile mini-storage and moving for both residential and commercial customers. PODS revolutionized the moving and storage industry by developing a proprietary hydraulic lift system that enables it to deliver a storage container to a customer on a flatbed truck, detach the container from the truck and then gently, and vertically, lower it to the ground. By detaching the storage container from the truck, PODS enables its customers to save time, money and hassle.
